

PMG Press Review Manager

Edit and distribute digital press reviews individually. With the PMG Press Review Manager you can create, design and distribute your press review with just a few clicks. The results of your research in the PMG press database are automatically merged into your new press review - including photos and infographics. After sorting the articles, you can check the results using the preview. The press review is optimised for mobile use and is available as HTML version and PDF. If required, you can compile individual articles from the online archive to offer your readers a weekly or special press review. Inform superiors and colleagues simply by mouse click - with the PMG Press Review Manager.
